

2009 ILEA PODCAST FOR CREDIT - THE BRADY RULE FOR AMERICAN LAW ENFORCEMENT
PRESENTED BY CHARLES N. BRAUN II, ILEA STAFF ATTORNEY & LAW INSTRUCTOR

- What exactly is the Brady Rule for American law enforcement?
- Does this rule also apply to Indiana based police officers?
- Is the Indiana rule identical to the national rule?
- Can Indiana police rules really be different than the national rules for law enforcement?
- Who in law enforcement should be especially concerned with the Brady Rule?
- Is the Brady Rule primarily a problem for the local prosecuting attorney?
- Who enforces the Brady Rule?
- How is the Brady Rule violated by police officers?
- Why is there a difference under the Fourth Amendment Exclusionary Rule between the accidental loss of criminal evidence verses the intentional or gross and wanton loss of criminal evidence by the police?
- What can happen if the Brady Rule is violated?
- Why is the preservation of evidence so important to gaining a criminal court conviction?
- Is there a good source for actually seeing written Brady Rules policies?
